

Unseen Talent

Sarah Melvin

What is your role?

Communications and Development, so I handle our social media, website, open events etc. and I also bring funds into the school via events, donations and partnerships.

How long have you worked here?

Three years.

Where are you based?

In one of the offices at the back of the cafeteria next to the counsellor.

Best thing about working at Becky High?

It's hard to choose! I love that no two days are the same and that I get the opportunity to work with so many talented students and staff. It's very rarely boring!

Life before Becky High!

I studied English Literature at the University of Wales, Aberystwyth and moved to London to work in PR after graduation. I worked in food and drink PR for global communications agencies Bell Pottinger Good Relations (now Good Relations) and Hill + Knowlton Strategies for Nestle Rowntree, Kelloggs, Evian, Britvic and Quorn. I lived in NYC for several years where I worked in the Public Affairs Department of the American Red Cross in Manhattan. I moved into education when my children were little, first at Thorpe House School and then Becky High!

“

I've worked with celebrities Darcy Bussell, the band Athlete, and celebrity chef Ainsley Harriott (pictured). One of the most interesting events I organised was for the chocolate bar Yorkie at Stringfellow's Nightclub! I love sewing, charity shopping for clothes, books, champagne and all things vintage. I'm also a Becky High alumna!
