

60 SECONDS with

MS GANACHAUD
Director of Sixth Form

What made you decide to be a teacher?

It wasn't something I thought I would be. I loved sport and enjoyed maths which is what I did my degree in, and at the end of my degree I thought what next... and here I am! Now I love what I do.

Who would you play in a movie?

Sandra Bullock – she's hilarious in The Proposal and Miss Congeniality!

Favourite word?

Jislaaik - pronounced Yus-like (South African Afrikaans word).

Last book you read?

Sophie - a book about a dog.

Netflix or Kindle?

Netflix.

What piece of advice would you give your younger self?

Don't take yourself seriously - laugh, laugh and laugh some more.

First job you ever had?

Working at a department store in the linen department - I now fold towels as if they are on display

If you ran away and joined the circus, what type of performer would you be?

Trapeze artist - at least that's what I'd want to be!

Why did you choose to work at Becky High?

The students and the staff. Everyone works so hard, and together as a team.

