

LOUISA DOWN

ENGLISH TEACHER

WHAT MADE YOU WANT TO BE A TEACHER?

I have always loved English as a subject and wanted to share my passion with pupils. Moreover, I love to help others - particularly young people - not only with their studies but also their general wellbeing.

FIRST JOB?

At 16, I worked as a waitress at a chocolaterie called Rumsey's. It was a great way to gain some confidence and I enjoyed free chocolate and desserts!

WHO WOULD PLAY YOU IN A MOVIE?

I love a good horror movie, and was once told once that I look like Drew Barrymore, so I would say I would have to play her character in the original 'Scream' movie!

LAST THING YOU GOOGLED?

The best screams in horror movie history!

NETFLIX OR KINDLE?

Netflix. I don't like Kindles. Being an English teacher, when it comes to books, I like to turn a real page when I am reading!

WHY DID YOU CHOOSE BECKY HIGH?

I chose Becky High because I love working with pupils who have a real passion for learning. Furthermore, I had heard that Becky High truly cares for pupils' wellbeing as well as their academic potential and this is something that I want to promote as a teacher myself.
