

MAIRI POMEROY

GEOGRAPHY TEACHER

WHAT MADE YOU WANT TO BE A TEACHER?

I left a career in marketing to become a teacher because I wanted to make a difference to young people's lives and show them how amazing geography is! I also had a great teacher called Miss Bailey who inspired me to love geography in the first place.

WHAT ARE WATCHING CURRENTLY?

I am currently rewatching "White Lotus", I'm also a big fan of "The Traitors".

IF YOU COULD, WHAT WOULD YOU CHANGE YOUR NAME TO?

Probably something people could spell and pronounce more easily. Perhaps, Mia.

FAVOURITE SMELL?

Fresh bread or weirdly, candles after they have been blown out. It always reminds me of celebrations.

BIGGEST PHOBIA?

Ventriloquist puppets freak me out!

STAY IN OR GO OUT?

I have two young children, so I am too tired to go out! A night in with a glass of wine and some Maltesers is ideal.

WHY DID YOU CHOOSE BECKY HIGH?

The students! Their love for learning and curiosity always amazes me. The staff are always really supportive and have a wealth of experience to share. Becky High is a lovely bubble to be in!
