

English Literature

Welcome to bridging work for English Literature.

To get an overview and see what the assessment objectives and weightings are read the syllabus requirements here

Your course will look like this in Year 12:

Teacher 1: Coursework

This begins with all year 12 studying 'The World's Wife'.

Teacher 2: 'The Gothic'

In this unit we will compare 'Rebecca' and 'The Bloody Chamber.'

Over the summer please read:

Rebecca - Daphne Du Maurier-novel

ISBN-13 : 978-0349006574

Atonement – Ian McEwan – novel

Publisher: Vintage; New Ed edition (17 May 2002)

ISBN-10: 9780099429791

The Bloody Chamber – Angela Carter – collection of short stories

ISBN 13 9780099588115

The World's Wife Carol Ann Duffy – poetry

ISBN-13 : 978-1509852666

You will also need to complete the following tasks to be delivered in Week 1 of the Autumn Term to your English teacher:

Task 1, Angela Carter

How far do you agree that the most effective opening in the collection is the one for 'The Tiger's Bride' (one A4 side)

TASK 2, Atonement

Read Atonement by Ian McEwan and answer the following question:

After part one, what are your first impressions of Briony? (one A4 side)